

What if your FP&A could do More?

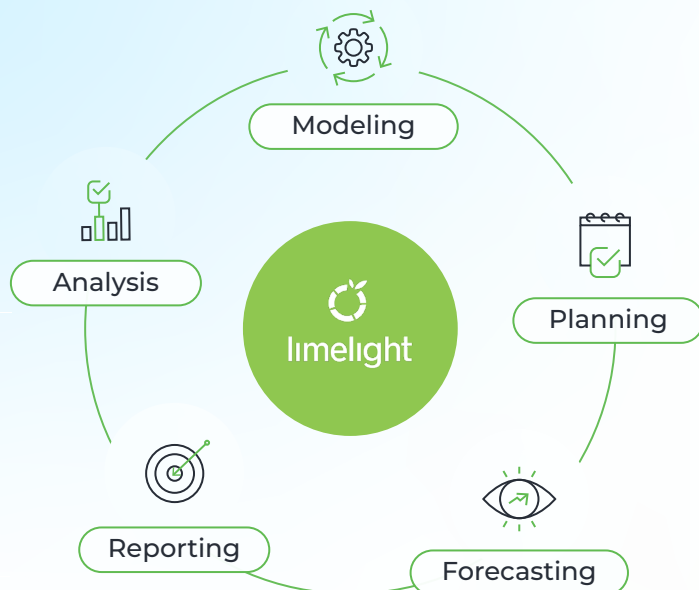

The world of finance is changing rapidly, and traditional spreadsheets are no longer enough.

Outdated data, manual errors, and time-consuming processes are holding back finance teams and hindering growth.

Limelight is the Excel-free FP&A designed to empower your team with the real-time insights, automation, and flexibility needed to thrive in today's competitive landscape.

We understand the unique challenges faced by finance professionals – from managing complex budgets to delivering accurate forecasts. That's why we've built Limelight to be intuitive, powerful, and owned by finance.

The Challenge

Organizations are stuck in the past, relying on outdated tools and manual processes.

Overburdened Teams

Spending countless hours on data entry, consolidation, and error correction.

Delayed Insights

Waiting for reports and struggling to keep up with the pace of business.

Missed Opportunities

Making decisions based on outdated or incomplete information.

The Outcome

A new level of FP&A. Better Productivity & Insights that Drive Growth.

● Increased Productivity

Free up your team to focus on analysis and strategy.

● Instant Insights

No more waiting for reports or chasing down numbers. Get the information you need, when you need it.

● Data-Driven Decisions

Make confident choices based on the most current data, not yesterday's numbers.

Why did this amount go up from last year?

Key Differences from Excel

Automation

Limelight automates tedious tasks that bog down spreadsheets.

Real-Time Data

No more waiting for manual updates – your data is always current.

Flexibility

One template can handle multiple scenarios and dimensions, eliminating the need for countless versions.

Collaboration

Work together seamlessly online with built-in commenting and version control.

Workforce Planning

Efficiently plan and optimize your existing headcount, forecast future staffing needs, and model the impact of new hires. Limelight automatically calculates salaries, benefits, merit increases, and bonuses, taking the complexity out of workforce planning.

Dashboards

Your personalized command center for key metrics and insights. Interactive charts and graphs make it easy to explore your data and identify trends.

Reporting & Ad Hoc Analysis

Effortlessly create polished, professional reports in a variety of formats, always reflecting the latest information. Quickly analyze variances with built-in commentary, compare actuals to budgets, and dive deeper with ad hoc reporting.

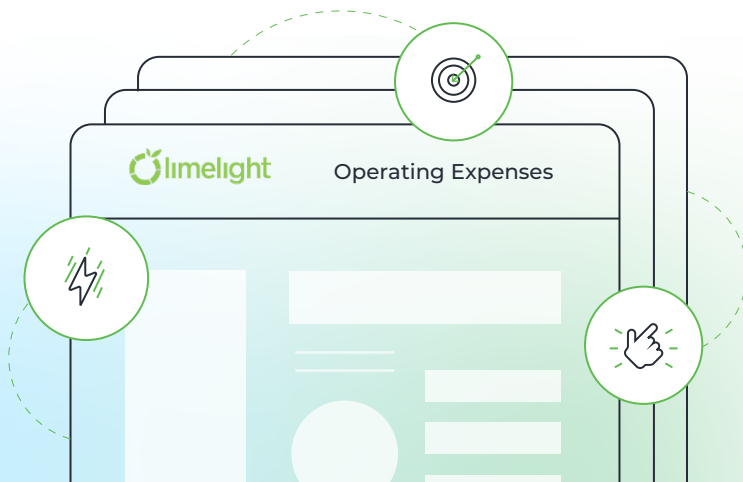

Security and Risk Mitigation

Robust security features protect your financial data, while Limelight's centralized system mitigates risks associated with employee turnover by ensuring that institutional knowledge of financial models isn't lost when individuals leave.

⚡ Fast-Track Your FP&A Success
